

Wednesday - 18 April 1951

1. Discussed with Mr. Goodrich, Assistant General Counsel, Department of Defense, steps to be taken with the Department of Justice in connection with security violations being committed by Mr. C. Clayton Hutton, a British subject who is lecturing and attempting to publish a book in this country on classified evasion and escape material.

2. Called and thanked Senator Hickenlooper for forwarding to us through General Donovan papers of possible usefulness sent to the Senator by Mr. William Considine.
